Two new members, Charles W. Albaugh, treasurer of the Holland Manufacturing Company and Harry A. Blanchette, local agent of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, attended their first meeting Tuesday at the weekly meeting of the Willimantic Rotary Club over which Valentine L. Murphy presided. Rev. John Pearce, pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church, was guest of the club. District Deputy Don Adams read a communication which contained words of appreciation for the increase in the club attendance. James P. Bath, chairman of the fresh air fund committee, then read his report of the committee's activities and it was voted to pay a check of $4 from the club treasury. The chair appointed a committee of one to attend the meeting at the chamber of commerce rooms Sunday evening Dec. 2, for the purpose of forming a community organization to take over the Y. M. C. A. building.

A letter of thanks from the American Youth League for the financial aid of the club given for the education of a local boy at the Kimball Union Academy, was read. It was voted to appoint a committee of three to write a letter which will be announced later, upon a motion by Fred P. Jordan. Rev. Harry A. McCready then spoke in regard to the community fund meeting at the town hall next Sunday evening. Chairman of the entertainment committee, Harry W. Stinchfield, then announced a plan for future meetings at which all members will be required to give a talk on their own particular business.

Following these talks another member will tell what he would do if he were engaged in that business. The name of T. Frank Cunningham was drawn to give the first of these talks at the meeting on Tuesday. Mr. E. and John C. Tracy will give his opinion of what he would do. For the following meeting Raymond A. Parker will talk on the coal and wood business and Valentine L. Murphy will advise him as to what he should do to overcome the coal shortage. The autobiography of the day was omitted and will be given at the next meeting by T. Frank Cunningham. The first of the new speaking plan is to complete the furnishing of entertainment to the members themselves. Louis E. Kingsbury then gave an interesting talk on his experiences while on a tour of Europe last spring. The meeting was then closed by singing one stanza of The Star Spangled Banner. In police court Tuesday William LeClair of Okeus was fined $15 and costs amounting to $24.15 for the theft of a ring from Miss Laura Armand of this city. The ring was valued at $14 and LeClair pleaded guilty to the charge. Miss Armand said that while in a local store on June 15 she met LeClair and showed him the ring. LeClair grabbed it and made off and when she went to get it later found that he had gone to Canada. A warrant was made out for his arrest and on his return to Okeus a few days ago he was apprehended. LeClair said that while he was at work the ring had broken and he had thrown it away. He agreed to buy the girl another ring.

Dr. H. E. Dow was charged with non support of his wife, Beulah L. Dow, and entered a demurrer which was overruled by Judge Dean. Dr. Dow was found guilty and ordered to pay the sum of $15 per week to his wife. He then took an appeal to superior court under bonds of $500. This is the defendant's second appeal from furnishing support to his wife, having taken an appeal a few months ago when he was ordered to pay $15 a week to his wife.

Andrew C. Roux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roux of 214 Pleasant street, and Miss Luma Dion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dion of 31 High street, were quietly married by Rev. J. J. Papillon in St. Mary's church recently. They were attended by Joseph Roux and Antoine Dion. Mr. and Mrs. Roux left by automobile on their honeymoon trip of two weeks after which they will reside at 214 Pleasant street.

Mr. Roux is the superintendent of the local plant of the Rosale Velvet company and is well known in this city. Mrs. Roux has been employed at the Boston Store in this city.

The undertaking automobile of the Jay M. Shepard Estate and a Ford commercial truck owned and driven by Irving Fuller of Mansfield Four Corners, collided at the foot of the foot of Spring hill recently when the Dodge car in which were John Johnson and Fred Avery, skidded and struck the Ford truck in which rode Mr. Fuller and his sister, Arline Fuller. Mr. Fuller received slight cuts on the head and had to have medical attention. According to reports the Ford truck was considerably damaged and the Dodge received some damage to the wheels. The collision was a head-on one and both parties were traveling slowly.

Frank C. Phillips has brought suit to recover damages of $500 against James W. Baker of Ashford and the case is returnable before the Windham county superior court the first Tuesday in December. It is alleged in the writ that the defendant sold the plaintiff a boiler last October, an engine and a saw mill and he warranted the boiler to be all right for use. The plaintiff alleges that at that time of sale the boiler was not fit for use, being badly rusted and in a leaking condition, and that the defects rendered it absolutely worthless for use.

The funeral of George A. Shepard was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the late home, 86 South Park street. Rev. Walter F. Borchert officiated. Burial was in the Willimantic cemetery. The bearers were H. R. Chappell, R. L. Wiggin, A. B. Burdison, Frank W. Alpaugh, D. C. Hill and R. E. Mitchell. The Jay M. Shepard Estate had charge of the arrangements.

With a Sterling Range in Your Kitchen You Will Enjoy Cooking

Every woman enjoys cooking when she has the right tools at hand.

If her cook stove is out-of-date, poorly constructed, it over heats unevenly, if there is not sufficient top space, it is mighty difficult to give the family properly cooked meals. Batches of food will be spoiled, wasting both time and material—meals will be late, or insufficiently cooked, a menace to the family health.

With a Sterling Range (the range that bakes a barrel of flour with a single hod of coal) in the kitchen she can serve her meals by the clock, the oven will never go back on her for there are no cold spots in the Sterling oven. Every ounce of fuel is turned into heat—an economy in fuel and an insurance in cooking results.

A Sterling Range is a high-class investment, which you can buy on convenient terms. Ask your Sterling dealer about them.
